PERSONAL GUIDANCE IN A STRONG UNION

SPILLERFORENINGEN – THE DANISH FOOTBALL PLAYERS’ ASSOCIATION

Spillerforeningen – the Danish Football Players’ Association - represents football players in Denmark and Danish football players playing abroad. We have secured and systemised pension schemes, insurances, education and several other important matters so all our members get the help and guidance they need, when they need it.

You can learn more about your many membership benefits in this folder. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact us:

BECOME A PART OF A POWERFUL UNITY

A membership of Spillerforeningen is not only a clear statement of solidarity between all players, it is also your lifeline if you need help with anything regarding your employment in Denmark. We can help you from the day you get here till the day you may decide to move on. Spillerforeningen is a powerful stakeholder and frontrunner, who successfully fights for the wellbeing, rights and working conditions for you and all your footballing colleagues here in Denmark.

Spillerforeningen has helped to ensure:

- The first collective bargaining agreement (CBA) in Danish football
- An agreement for a profitable sporting pension
- CBA’S for the Danish National Teams. Men, Women and Under 21

READY TO HELP YOU

Spillerforeningen has the best advisors in the country to handle your case. Our internal and external advisors are absolute experts in the complicated field of football legislation, giving you the best advice and guidance when you need it the most. This includes everything from injury claims, tax conditions, insurances, pension schemes and so on. You can read more about the advisors on the next pages. With their help, you can concentrate on playing football instead of doing paperwork.

A STRONG TEAM

Spillerforeningen is part of two strong communities:

FIFPro is the worldwide representative organization for all professional players; more than 65,000 footballers in total including players like Lionel Messi and Cristiano Ronaldo. FIFPro was established in 1965 and currently has 60 national players’ associations as members and several candidate members and observers hoping to join FIFPro. Learn more at www.fifpro.org

FH - The Danish Confederation of Trade Unions - is the largest national trade union confederation in Denmark with about 100.300 members (about one fourth of the Danish population). FH seeks to influence the government and the political parties when it comes to drafting and implementing legislation especially in relation to labour market policies. Learn more at www.fho.dk

A MEMBERSHIP THAT PAYS OFF

HOLIDAY PAY AND PENSIONS

You are always entitled to holiday allowances and pension as part of the CBA between Spillerforeningen and clubs. However, it can be difficult to figure out, if your club pays you the correct amount. Spillerforeningen can accurately calculate this and make sure that your club complies.

PRO TRAINING WITH PROTREATMENT

ProTreatment is the number one choice among Danish top athletes, when they want expert physical training or need rehabilitation following an injury. As a member of Spillerforeningen you can train with ProTreatment for free in both summer and winter breaks if you sign up for Team Spillerforeningen. Team Spillerforeningen is for members only, so you will train alongside other professional football players. Learn more at www.spillerforeningen.dk/projekter/Team-Spillerforeningen

CONTRACT NEGOTIATION

Spillerforeningen provides free counselling by our intermediaries. Through our knowledge of Danish clubs, we can give you an evaluation of how you will fit into the club and advise you on salary etc. But getting the right contract is a question of more than cold cash. It is also a matter of reading between the lines and knowing the right people. Through our years of experience, Spillerforeningen has established a wide network that provides the help you need to achieve both personal and financial success.
